2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claim 4, the prior art references either alone or in combination discloses or suggests an airbag particularly comprising a front wall and a back wall being connected to each other by a detachable connection such that the front wall cannot separate from the back wall as long as the connection remains in tact, and the connection between the front wall and back wall being served as a consequence of unfolding of the side wall when the airbag inflated.

With respect to claim 5, the prior art references either alone or in combination discloses or suggests an airbag particularly comprising a front wall and a back wall being connected to each other by a detachable connection, and the connection between the front wall and back wall being served as a consequence of unfolding of the side wall when the airbag inflated; wherein the connection is formed by at least one loop attached to the front wall and to the back wall.

With respect to claim 6, the prior art references either alone or in combination discloses or suggests an airbag particularly comprising a front wall and a back wall being connected to each other by a detachable connection, the detachable connection being functionally coupled to the side wall portion so that the connection between the front wall and back wall being served as a consequence of unfolding of the side wall when the airbag inflated.
